BY USING THIS WEBSITE, YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO ANY OF THE TERMS OR CONDITIONS PROVIDED HEREIN, PLEASE DO NOT USE THIS WEBSITE OR ANY INFORMATION OR SERVICE HEREIN.

About the website

The main mission of the Pan-European Seal Talent Bank (the PES Talent Bank) is to gather a list of interested organisations/institutions/firms/companies representing relevant stakeholders offering traineeship/job offers to former trainees of the Pan-European Seal Professional Traineeship Programme (PES) through this online tool. In pursuit of its mission, the EUIPO offers telematic services requiring technologies capable of sending, receiving and storing information.

The general purpose of the PES Talent Bank Website (the Website) is to provide associated partners with access to a platform of profiles relevant for their traineeship and job offers, to help the community of PES trainees to continue developing their careers through top-quality traineeships and job opportunities offered by the associated partners, to advertise any significant initiatives by the associated partners that could be of interest for the PES community and to establish a high-level network between the EUIPO, the EPO, the associated partners and the former PES trainees. Additional services allow authenticated users to upload and retrieve documents and data on the PES Talent Bank. Access to services offered via the Website may require authentication.

The EUIPO is committed to ensuring the uninterrupted availability of the Website and to providing security to a professionally reasonable level of skill and care. However, this cannot be guaranteed. Access to the Website and its services may occasionally be suspended, restricted or impeded to permit repairs, maintenance or the introduction of new services or facilities.

Applicable terms

Access to, and use of, any part of the Website, any document, material or other information, including data, text, images, and sound (Information) made available on the Website and any of the services provided via the Website (Services) are governed by these general terms and conditions of use (General Terms) and constitute acceptance of these General Terms by the user.

Specific terms and conditions may apply to individual services or specific parts of the Website as indicated for those services or parts concerned. Where provided, specific terms will supersede any differing provision of the General Terms in respect of those services or parts.

The EUIPO reserves the right to amend these General Terms and any other specific terms on the Website at any time by posting amended terms and conditions on the Website. Such amendments will take effect on the date on which they are posted.

Ownership

The PES operates in a network of universities in the European Union (EU), as well as other major universities outside the EU, with a shared aim to bring together academia and the labour market in different fields (IP, law, finance, business, engineering, etc.) to promote and disseminate intellectual property within the academic community. Contents offered by the PES in the scope of the PES Talent Bank may thus originate from users' data-holders (universities, PES trainees, associated partners, the EPO) and/or contain third-party proprietary information.

Information published on the Website may be protected by intellectual and industrial property rights. Proprietary rights, including copyright, subsisting in any of the Information available via this Website are vested in their respective owners, these being the EUIPO, partner data-holders or any other third-party credited as such. Access to the Services does not give users any ownership title in the Information made available to them on the Website. All rights not specifically granted herewith are reserved by the respective owner(s).

Right of use

Access to Information and Services of this Website is granted for consultation within the scope and objectives pursued by the EUIPO according to applicable EU law and to the EUIPO and PES Talent Bank Privacy Policy.

Users uploading or otherwise submitting content to the PES Talent Bank grant the EUIPO a worldwide license to use, host, store, reproduce, modify, create derivative works (such as those resulting from translations, adaptations or other changes necessary to ensure more efficient Services), communicate, publish, publicly perform, publicly display and distribute such content, within the scope and duration foreseen by applicable EU law.

Use of the Information is regulated as follows.

Users may:

- distribute or reproduce the Information as long as the Website is credited as its source and prominent mention is made to its free availability;
- create adaptations, translations, conversions, modifications or other derivative work based on the Information provided that reasonable steps have been taken to label or demarcate the alterations or otherwise clearly indicate that changes have been made to the original Information; and the author of the Information and/or the party credited as its provider - whichever appears on the Website - is mentioned, and the Website is cited as its source; and the right to reproduce and distribute any such adaptation is explicitly granted to any third party, under the same conditions as provided herein;
- use deep linking techniques to reach specific pages of the Website beyond the home page.

Users must not:

- perform any activity that could harm or violate the EUIPO's network performance and/or security, and, in particular, upload files containing viruses or other malware that might damage the operation of another user's computer;

- use integration techniques such as framing and inline linking with the Website and the Information therein;
- use the information and personal data made available on the Website for any other purposes than the ones covered by the official MoU signed between the parties and the general scope of the PES Talent Bank or for any illegal or misleading activity.

The foregoing licence does not cover Information to which any granted or pending intellectual property right other than copyright apply (e.g. trade marks, designs and database rights). In that case, and whenever a commercial use is required, users are encouraged to seek specific and explicit permission from the concerned rights holder(s).

Under no circumstance will the users use the EUIPO and PES logos or the official name and credentials of the EUIPO to imply affiliation, endorsement or other official link to the EUIPO without prior written and formal authorisation from the EUIPO.

Disclaimer

Information provided to the EUIPO by users' data-holders is displayed as received, without any kind of guarantee and for information purposes only. The EUIPO is not responsible for verifying the content and specific conditions of the traineeships/job offers.

Users' data-holders remain solely responsible for the accuracy and reliability of the data and information provided. Information provided by users' data-holders does not necessarily reflect the views of the EUIPO.

Except for the data and information referring to the PES trainees, associated partners and the EPO, the EUIPO strives to keep the Information up-to-date and accurate. However the EUIPO makes no claims, assurances, or guarantees about the accuracy, completeness, or adequacy of the Information available via the Website and, therefore, expressly disclaims its liability for errors and omissions to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Except where otherwise required under statutory rules or applicable provisions of law, the Information accessed via the Website is of a general informational nature only. Under no circumstances should the Information be construed as constituting professional or legal advice.

The EUIPO accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage that may arise from reliance on the Information and Services provided via the Website, including information or services hyperlinked from the Website which are and must remain under the sole control and responsibility of the third-parties concerned.

The EUIPO is not in a position to certify the authenticity of any document submitted by a third-party (i.e. PES trainees, associated partners, the EPO) or any information therein; neither can the EUIPO guarantee the concordance of any official text with corresponding digital copies that might be made available on the Website.

Should errors or omissions concerning the Information provided via this Website be brought to its attention, the EUIPO will endeavour to promptly correct them directly or, where necessary, refer the matter to the concerned users' data-holder or third-party.
