DECISION No EX-24-1 of the Executive Director of the Office of 12 January 2024 concerning the extension of time limits for parties having their residence or registered office in Japan

The Executive Director of the European Union Intellectual Property Office (the Office),

Having regard to Regulation (EU) 2017/1001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on the European Union trade mark⁽¹⁾ (EUTMR) and in particular Article 157(4)(a) thereof, pursuant to which the Executive Director of the Office must take all necessary steps, including the adoption of internal administrative instructions and the publication of notices, to ensure the functioning of the Office, as well as Article 101(3) and (4) EUTMR, that empower the Executive Director, in case of an interruption of communication from the parties to their representatives or the Office or vice-versa, to determine the duration of this interruption and grant an extension of deadlines in proceedings concerning EU trade marks until a date determined by him,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EC) No 6/2002 of 12 December 2001 on Community Designs, as amended⁽²⁾ (CDR), and to Commission Regulation (EC) No 2245/02 of 21 October 2002 implementing the Council Regulation, as amended⁽³⁾, (CDIR), in particular Article 58(2) and (4) thereof, that empower the Executive Director to determine the duration of the period of interruption of communication between the parties and the Office or their representatives, with the consequence that affected deadlines in proceedings concerning Community designs are extended until the first day following the end of the period of interruption,

Whereas:

(1) Article 101(3) and (4) EUTMR and Article 58(2) and (4) CDIR ensure the proper functioning of the Office in situations of force majeure by mitigating the effects of an interruption of communication capable of affecting proceedings before the Office:

- either when there is an actual interruption of the Office's connection to admitted electronic means of communication, so that the Office is unable to directly communicate with the parties, irrespective of their place of residence or registered office;
- or where an exceptional occurrence interrupts proper communication from the parties to a representative having their place of business in a Member State or to the Office.

⁽³⁾ OJ L 193, 25.7.2007, p. 13.

- (2) Pursuant to Articles 119(2) and 120(1) and (2) EUTMR and Articles 77(2) and 78(1) and (2) CDR, parties having their residence or registered office outside the European Economic Area (EEA), shall be represented in all proceedings before the Office, other than the filing of an application for an EU trade mark or a Community design, by a legal practitioner or professional representative having their place of business in the EEA.
- (3) On 1 January massive earthquakes and a tsunami occurred in Japan around the Noto Peninsula, mainly in the Ishikawa, Niigata, Toyama and Fukui prefectures. These earthquakes were followed by continuous aftershocks.⁴
- (4) The earthquakes and the tsunami constitute an exceptional occurrence which has severely hindered or interrupted communications between Japan and the EEA as a whole.
- (5) The exceptional occurrence continues to prevent parties having their residence or registered office in Japan from accessing the Office's electronic systems and continues to render proper communication with the Office very problematic or impossible.
- (6) In addition, communication between parties having their residence or registered office in Japan and their representatives in the EEA continues to be obstructed or entirely interrupted.
- (7) The disruption extends to all time limits concerning parties having their residence or registered office in Japan.

HAS ADOPTED THE FOLLOWING DECISION:

Article 1

- (1) All time limits expiring between 1 January 2024 and 11 February 2024 inclusive that affect parties in proceedings before the Office having their residence or registered office in Japan are extended until 12 February 2024.
- (2) If the parties to proceedings before the Office choose to meet their procedural obligations before the expiry of the extended time limit by submitting observations, documents or performing any other procedural act, the relevant time limit will be considered exhausted, and the proceedings will continue without awaiting the expiry of the extension provided for under Article 1(1).
