

Christoph Bartos

E-mail address:	Mediator-Bartos@euipo.europa.eu
Telephone:	+34 965 139 743 (work, direct line)
Present position at EUIPO:	Member of the Boards of Appeal (assigned to the 3rd and 4th Board of Appeal) Head of the Examination Board of the EUTM Education Programme, EUIPO, Alicante, Spain
Nationality:	Austrian
Languages for mediation:	German: mother tongue
English: negotiation level	Spanish: negotiation level

Educational background

2012	Accredited Mediator
1994	Law Degree, University of Vienna (with specialization on European Law)

Mediation training

2012	CEDR, Accredited Mediator
2006	Negotiation (training, at EUIPO, Spain)

Earlier positions

2010 - 2011	Acting Head of Service , Registry of the Boards of Appeal, EUIPO, Spain. Heading a team of approx. 20 employees; dealing with all procedural questions concerning the appeal procedure
2009 - 2010	Assistant of the President of the Boards of Appeal , EUIPO, Spain. Assisting the President of the Boards of Appeal in legal matters, Secretary to the Presidium of the Boards of Appeal
2008 - 2009	Acting Head of Service , Documentation and Support Service, EUIPO, Spain. Heading a team of approx. 20 employees
2007 - 2008	Legal Advisor , Documentation and Support Service, EUIPO, Spain. Research with respect to legal problems concerning the Community Trade Mark and Community Design System
2000 - 2007	Legal Assistant, Boards of Appeal , EUIPO, Spain. Drafting decisions on appeals regarding Community Trademarks and Community Designs
1996 - 2000	Legal Advisor at the Bundesministerium für Inneres (Federal Ministry of the Interior), Vienna, Austria Responsible for the government bills concerning the ratification of the Schengen Agreements and the Accession Treaties; Head of Delegation of working groups of the Council of the European Union and of the Schengen Co-operation

1994 - 1996	Teaching Assistant at the Institut für Völkerrecht und Internationale Beziehungen, Universität Wien (Institute for Public International Law and International Relations, University of Vienna), Vienna, Austria Lecturer for Human Rights, International Criminal Law and Law against Terrorism; Coach of the team representing Austria at the Philip C. Jessup Law Moot Court
-------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Position in other EU agencies

2010 -	Alternate Chairperson of the Boards of Appeal at the European Chemical Agency (ECHA), Helsinki, Finland
--------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Membership of Professional bodies & Positions of Trust

2018 -	Head of the Examination Board & Member of the Steering Committee of the EUTM Education Programme, EUIPO, Alicante, Spain
2012 - 2013	President of the Joint Evaluation and Promotion Committee, EUIPO, Alicante, Spain
2007 - 2010	Member of the Joint Evaluation and Promotion Committee, EUIPO, Alicante, Spain
2008, 2011, 2014	President of the Electoral Board for the Election of the Staff Committee, EUIPO, Alicante, Spain
2003 - 2016	Member of various internal and external Selection Committees, EUIPO, Alicante, Spain
1990 - 1994	Member of the Student Representation at the Faculty of Law, University of Vienna, Vienna, Austria

Publications and lectures

	I have published and lectured extensively on Intellectual Property and European Law in Europe and Latin America, especially in Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Spain and Costa Rica
--	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------